

The Outrageous Faith of Bartimaeus;

Mark 10:46-52

By Mary Ann Collett

The Gospel of Mark tells a story of a blind man who used his voice to get back his vision. Many of us have lost our vision and have become fearful and hopeless in all we've experienced in our lives in the past Year 2020.

But there is hope to be found in this New Year of 2021 ... we need to use our voices to proclaim that Jesus Christ is Lord! If we don't have hope...we can't cope! We all need to hope and believe we can change, by using our faith and trust in Jesus. He can change any situation that we find ourselves in.

One way to begin is by choosing: two ways to live our lives either by fear or faith!

Fear and Faith cannot exist in the same place
at the same time.
Choose One.

Let your faith be bigger than your fear — "The Lord is my helper; I will not fear; what can man do to me?" (Hebrews 13:6).

Scripture also, tells us, "Fear of others becomes a snare, but the one who trusts in the Lord is safe" (Proverbs 29-25).

“Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:6-7).

While reflecting on, Mark 10:46-52: They reached Jericho; and as he left Jericho with his disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus (that is, the son of Timaeus), a blind beggar, was sitting at the side of the road. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout and to say, ‘Son of David, Jesus, have pity on me’. And many of them scolded him and told him to keep quiet, but he only shouted all the louder, ‘Son of David, have pity on me.’ Jesus stopped and said, ‘Call him here.’ So, they called the blind man. ‘Courage,’ they said, ‘get up; he is calling you.’ So, throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and went to Jesus. Then Jesus spoke, ‘What do you want me to do for you?’ ‘Rabbuni,’ the blind man said to him ‘Master, let me see again.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Go; your faith has saved you.’ And immediately his sight returned and he followed him along the road.

So, Bartimaeus who is without vision, uses what he has . . . his voice. He was not fearful! He had to yell to get Jesus’ attention. It was against custom to shout at a rabbi, but he didn’t let a custom keep him from getting healing from Jesus. He used his faith. The more people that told him to be quiet, the louder he shouted all the more. And he knew who Jesus was—he called him the Son of David. That tells us that he acknowledged Jesus as the Messiah. And when he finally gets Jesus’s attention...Bartimaeus is summoned, and he eagerly leaps to his feet (responding to Jesus’ Call). And he drops his cloak. As to say, Here I am Lord, do with me as you will! I come to you letting go of everything (the cloak...represents letting go of his whole being) and he asks for mercy and healing of his sight!

May our hearts also cry out to Him, gladly and confidently, “Son of David, Jesus, have pity on us!” We can only know Christ truly by the use of our faith and His unconditional Love.
